Dear Comrades,

36th Biennial Conference of Aryavart Gramin Bank Officers' Association – A supersuccess

36th Biennial Conference of Aryavart Gramin Bank Officers' Association was held on 5th January 2020 at Hotel Bandhan, Lucknow. Militant and dedicated comrades of Aryavart Gramin Bank Officers' Association made relentless efforts for making the conference a roaring success.

The dignitaries and guests were called on the dias and were felicitated with garlands and flower bouquets. The entire auditorium was overflowing with participants. The Honourable Law Minister, Govt. of Uttar Pradesh, Shri. Brajesh Pathak inaugurated the conference by lightning the traditional lamp followed by other dignitaries on the dias. Before inaugural address, the members of Aryavart Gramin Bank Officers' Association set the tune by presenting the inaugural song.

The inaugurator of the Conference, Honourable Minister Shri Brajesh Pathak, in his address, highly appreciated the role of Aryavart Gramin Bank towards rural development of the State of UP. He highlighted that for the farmers, RRBs and commercial Banks have extended financial help through KCC and Self Help Groups. He also said that in future RRB and commercial Bank will play a pivotal role for the development of the society. He assured his all out support, whenever required, for the development of the society.

Guest of Honour, Com. Pawan Kumar, President of AIBOC State Committee, UP warmly greeted the gathering and wished the conference all success.

Guest of Honour, Com. Chowhan, Secretary of AIBOC State Committee, Uttar Pradesh welcomed the assembly and addressed the house in his own style.

Com. Srijan Kumar Pal, General Secretary, AIRRBOF highlighted the prevailing issues of the RRBs in totality. He also highlighted the manpower policy, Promotion Rules of RRB in focus, some aberrations and deviations in the pension fund and re-capitalization to RRBs etc. The General Secretary wished the conference all success and appealed to all the members for increasing the membership.

Shri S. B. Singh, Chairman of the Bank & Chief Guest warmly greeted the gathering and expressed his concern & sympathy for the need of the Officers. He mentioned that, in line with the target of the Prime Minister (Farmer's income should be double within 2022), his Bank is extending the financial support to the Farmers and other down trodden people of the villages, and in that process, the Officers & employees are totally with the Bank. He emphasized the need to the positive mindset and approach. He wished the conference all success. He also mentioned that uniform policy is required in RRB.
